

Accessing HCPS Digital Tools from Outside of Schools

For Students and Families of Edgewood High School

For all these digital tools ↓ start at: start.hcps.org		and log in with:
Then click on these tiles: 	Find assignments from your teachers here under “Courses” tab	your school computer username@student.hcps.org and your school computer password (If you ever see this, click it):  Log in with Harford account
	Free use of Word, PowerPoint etc. Find your OneDrive files and school email (Outlook)	Same as above
	Find Databases like Britannica, World Book, and Gale in the Collection called “Databases” Passwords for all databases are listed in a document in that collection too. Look for:  Passwords for our Databases	Click on your school’s name, then  Harford County Public School District then same as above.
Click here for: Instructions for Resetting Student Passwords from home
	Check student grades and look for any missing assignments	Logging into HAC: Students: Your current username and password for school computers Parents use email address and password you created through the HCPS.org site
	Keep up to date on HCPS news and find link for our EHS school website under “About Us” → Our Schools	No password needed